

MASTER OF MINISTRY

Objectives:

- To demonstrate a general knowledge of the Bible, with an in-depth understanding of selected books using a literal hermeneutic leading to a dispensational, pre-millennial interpretation of the Scriptures
- To articulate the basic tenets of Christian theology and principles of ministry from a perspective of balanced Christian maturity, fundamentalism, separatism, and Baptist polity
- To serve in New Testament churches and related ministries locally or cross-culturally, using necessary leadership insights and organizational skills
- To prepare and preach/teach hermeneutically sound and homiletically effective sermons/Bible lessons, along with the use of counseling methods that are biblically based
- To conduct research on a ministry-related subject and report that research in a paper using clear English and standard procedures
